The Russell C. Flake Child Development Center

Think summer. Picture your children in an environment rich with opportunity to play, learn and grow. Where their strengths are fostered by professional and supportive staff who serve as caring, confident role models. Where they make new friends – old and young – in an intergenerational campus. Picture them at Children's Village Summer Camp.

The Russell C. Flake Child Development Center (The Children's Village), located on the campus of John Knox Village, offers a fun and constructive experience for elementary school children.

This summer's camp theme: "Welcome to the Jungle"

Campers will learn about the plants, animals and other creatures that make their home in the jungle.

Our program is nationally accredited by the NAEYC Academy for Early Childhood Program Accreditation.
