Independent Living/Residential Care Facility Volunteer Openings

Are you a bookworm?

We have a current opening in our library front desk on Thursday mornings from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Enjoy helping others find just the right book for them to read.

Like making others feel good?

The Health Services Marketing department is in need of volunteers to visit our JKV residents that are currently staying in local hospitals. Nothing is nicer when you are in a hospital than the friendly smile and visit from someone you know who cares about you.

Is your talent playing the piano?

If so, we have several volunteer opportunities that will enable you to show us your skills. The Men's Glee Club and The Treble Clef groups both need an accompanist!

Like to crochet?

Get together monthly and help crochet much needed prayer shawls. You get to do what you love the most and the shawl gives comfort to those in need.

Is sewing your passion?

Come to the E Building sewing room and help make cancer pillows. Have fun visiting with other residents as you work on your projects.

Love to sing?

Come and volunteer your time to sign for one of our many choirs. Enjoy the sound of music!

For more information about the opportunities listed above, please call Michele Rusinko, volunteer manager, at 816-347-2318.

Every season is ice cream season!

The Ice Cream Parlor needs your help to scoop the yummy creamy stuff so others can enjoy it too. We are looking to expand our hours to include some early evenings. Currently need volunteers for Monday through Friday from 4 to 7 p.m. We are also in need of volunteers for the 2nd Sunday of each month 1-4 p.m.

Like the sound of the big brass band?

The VCC activity department is looking for volunteers to come once a month on a Saturday to escort residents to the main dining room so they can enjoy the wonderful tunes of days gone by.

Feel a need to get out of the Village for a spell?

Become a medical escort for our residents in the Village Care Center which is something that would be helpful to others and a breath of fresh air for yourself! Hours vary. Transportation provided.

Do you have some musical talent?

If so, please consider sharing it with our residents at the VCC. They love to listen to new and interesting musicians.

Like to bowl?

We are looking for someone who is interested in playing Wii bowling one on one with a VCC resident. What a great way to have fun and make a friend too!

Do you like to walk?

Then consider being an escort for our salons at the VCC. You will escort residents from their room to the salons in same building so they can get their hair wash and set.

Visitors Needed

Come and give up some of your spare time and visit a resident at the VCC who is lonely and would love a little company. You set up your own hours.

To find out more information about any Village Care Center openings, please contact Volunteer Manager Michele Rusinko at 816-347-2318

Expert on donated goods?

The Thrift Shop is in need of help to go over new donations to determine their value. It's fun to see what others give away! Help us help the Village!

Like to wait on customers?

The Thrift Shop is looking for volunteers to help wait on others as they come to the shop to find their latest treasure! We'd love you to come over and give your advice.

Are you a movie or music expert?

We need someone with that skill to help price all our various CDs, tapes, and movies that get donated to the Thrift Shop. You might find a bargain for yourself too!

Have fun and enjoy being around others at the same time!

Volunteers are needed to help stock, sort and help customers. Have fun helping others find a great bargain – and find some for yourself too!

Are you good with repairs?

Use your talents and help fix small items that are donated to the Thrift Shop. No job is too small. Assistance is available.

Do you like to pack things away?

The Thrift Shop is currently in need of individuals to give their time by bagging the goodies after they are purchased. Hours vary.

Quilters Unite!

We are looking for those who are experienced in the art of quilting. We are currently working on some awesome projects. Have some fun, use your talents and make friends all at the same time. Hours vary.

Can you tell what is a good houseware?

The Thrift Shop is in need of someone who can look at donated house wares and determine what its value. They need your expertise!

Call Michele Rusinko, volunteer manager, at 816-347-2318 for more information.

Village Hospice Volunteer Openings

Variety is the Spice of Life

If you are an individual that likes variety, there are opportunities for you to lend a helping hand with various activities. Examples include arranging and/or delivering flowers to patients and helping with events etc.

A Special Calling...

There are numerous opportunities in which you can make a difference with a hospice patient and/or their caregiver. Activities include: visiting, reading, playing games, helping a patient write his/her memoir, providing a caregiver with a restful break, running errands and providing comfort to the patient and/or families during the 11th hour.

Working with patients of hospice care is a special calling. If you have that gifting...this opportunity might be the right fit for you.

For more information about becoming a Village Hospice volunteer contact Priscilla Rhoades, Village Hospice volunteer manager, at 816-347-2578.
